your wife, neighbor, where she gets that fine coffee we had for supper. It's the best I've drunk in many a day. I want Martha to get some just like it."

"Well, Deacon, I can tell you that. It's some of a new lot they've just got in down to BANE'S grocery store. They call it and they charged me but 40c a pound for it."

Home Brand Mocha and Java

"Well, that's a great grocery store, sure as you're living, neighbor. About everything that comes from there seems to be better than you get at any other store. And folks are getting onto this fact, too, I guess, for it 'pears to me as though everybody on our street was trading there. But, sure as shooting, I'm going down there first thing tomorrow for some of that coffee, and some of those fine new vegetables and fruits, lettuce, radishes, onions, pie plant, asparagus, spinach and cucumbers. Everything fresh and clean."

Pearls Found in Cocoanuts. "Pearls are not found in oysters alone. Sometimes," said a lapidary, "they are found in cocoanuts. I once cut a coconut pearl. It was the size of a pen, and its quality was good. It resembled an oyster pearl, only it was a little duller. Coconut pearls are found in the heart of the nut. It is thought that they are formed by the hardening of the nut's flesh. They are, so to speak, a kind of crystallized tumor or wart. These pearls are rare. They are rarer than oyster pearls. They are also cheaper than oyster pearls, being less hard and less transparent."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Undecided. "I say, Mamie," said Mamie, "did you see Mrs. Jingles' new vase?" "Yes. Isn't it perfectly horrid?" "I don't know yet. I haven't found out whether it is modern and perfectly horrid or antique and perfectly lovely."

BATTLE IS IMMINENT

BELIEVED THAT RIVAL FLEETS OF RUSSIA AND JAPAN WILL SOON CLASH.

LAND FORCES AGAIN ACTIVE

MANCHURIA TO BE THE SCENE OF ANOTHER GORY CONFLICT IN NEAR FUTURE.

Paris, May 20.—The apparently complete disappearance of the Russian far Eastern fleet leads to the belief either that a battle is imminent or that Admiral Rojestvensky has succeeded in establishing a naval base. On the other hand it is pointed out here that the position of the fleet May 16 in latitude 13.30 and longitude 111.30 indicated that it might have been decided to follow a course north of Luzon into the Pacific instead of going through the Straits of Formosa, where Admiral Togo is believed to be awaiting Admiral Rojestvensky. It is maintained the Japanese difficulties have been increased by their inability to determine whether the Russians are proceeding untidily or have divided their fleet into two sections. Some experts maintain the fleet has been divided for the purpose of permitting one division to reach Vladivostok, while the other occupies the attention of Admiral Togo. Naval circles here are disposed to criticize the Japanese tactics in failing to harass Rojestvensky's transports during the lengthy period of taking on supplies. The results of Rojestvensky's movements are being awaited with intense interest in official quarters.

LAND FORCES MOVING

RUSSIAN AND JAPANESE ARMIES ON THE EVE OF BATTLE IN MANCHURIA.

New York, May 20.—The Times this morning publishes the following copyrighted cable from Tokio:

The news from Manchuria indicates the imminence of a battle. The Russians occupy a line forty-two miles in length, from Yenchoing to Hsidosien, via Supinghe, where they have good defensive positions, strongly entrenched.

The Japanese are advancing in three columns from Kaiyuan, Chengtufo and Fakoman. In the eastern part of the field the Russians who retreated from Tunghua and Singking rallied at Wangkaotse, forty miles north of Tunghua, but subsequently withdrew north, their advanced positions being now at Liuhochen, fifteen miles north of Wangkaotse.

Their main position is at Hailiung Ching, where General Matorloff commands. A battle in this region is expected soon.

BIRILEFF WILL COMMAND.

Admiral to Be the Supreme Officer at Vladivostok.

St. Petersburg, May 20.—Vice Admiral Birileff, who has been named for the supreme naval command in the Pacific, will leave for Vladivostok on May 25 to assume charge there and make preparations for repairing and refitting the vessels of Vice Admiral Rojestvensky's fleet when they arrive.

By imperial command Vice Admiral Birileff will have all the rights and powers of a commander of the army, and the commander of the Vladivostok garrison will be subjected to his orders, thereby avoiding the possibility of any conflict of authority in case of a siege, as at Port Arthur.

"I have no intention of relieving Vice Admiral Rojestvensky of the immediate command of the fleet if he is well and able to perform his duties on his arrival at Vladivostok," said the admiral, who is small of stature and short of hair, but keen and alert in bearing. "I have respect for his qualifications as a fleet commander and there will be plenty for us both to do."

Admiral Birileff, who in spite of his sixty-four years is overflowing with energy, has the reputation of being a strict disciplinarian. He expressed himself hopeful over the prospects for the Russians in the coming naval encounter. He said he believed the Russian Pacific fleet was destined to restore the naval supremacy in the Pacific, which was lost at the very outbreak of the war. The dispatching of the reinforcing squadron of two battleships, two cruisers and a number of torpedo boat destroyers and gunboats, the admiral said, is fixed for the middle of June.

Reports of Vice Admiral Rojestvensky's breakdown and of his surrender of his command continue in circulation, one rumor saying that Vice Admiral Nebogotoff has been ordered to assume the command.

To Convene Zemsky Sovyet. St. Petersburg, May 20.—According to the Novoe Vremya, Emperor Nicholas Friday signalized his birthday by signing a manifesto fixing the date for the convocation of the "zemsky soviet," or council of the people, for Oct. 17. Emperor Nicholas' birthday was celebrated as a general holiday.

HOCH FOUND GUILTY

ALLEGED BIGAMIST AND MURDERER IS CONDEMNED TO DEATH IN CHICAGO.

Chicago, May 20.—Johann Hoch, who by his own confession is several times a bigamist, and who is charged by the police with having married at least forty women in the past fifteen years, was found guilty of murder during the day and the death sentence recommended by a jury in Judge Kersten's court. The crime for which Hoch will be led to the gallows was the murder of his last known wife, Mrs. Marie Welcker-Hoch. Hoch had been married to this woman but a few days when she became suddenly ill and died. He then formed an alliance with Mrs. Emilie Fischer, the sister of the dead woman. After securing Mrs. Fischer's money, Hoch fled from Chicago. This woman in quest of revenge notified the police that Hoch had poisoned her sister and a search for Hoch was begun. He was found two weeks later in New York and brought back to Chicago, where he was confronted by several of his supposed wives. During the trial expert testimony was offered by the state that Hoch had poisoned the woman by administering arsenic.

The day's verdict was one of the quickest on record in Cook county, the jury having reached a decision in less than half an hour. Three ballots were taken. The first ballot was unanimous as to Hoch's guilt and then a ballot followed as to the punishment to be inflicted. This ballot showed ten in favor of the death penalty and two for life imprisonment. A third ballot resulted in the twelve jurors voting for the death penalty.

"It's All Off With John."

"Well, I guess it's all off with John," groaned Hoch, as the verdict was read in court, but it was plain he was greatly affected. He had sat in a stooping position, but when the word "death" was reached he turned pale, stared hopelessly at the jurors and then sank limp in his chair.

He nodded his head. He seemed unable to realize what was said. After a moment of silence he asked the question "Another one?" No person understood what he meant. A bailiff tapped him on the shoulder and tried to bring him to. Several women who had been awaiting the verdict fainted in the courtroom. In the commotion that followed Hoch was escorted from the courtroom by a bailiff.

Hoch's attorneys will ask for a new trial, although the condemned man after reaching his cell declared he was ready to die and would be better satisfied if they did not make the effort.

"I wish they would hang me tonight, now that I have been found guilty," he said, "I am not afraid to die, and the sooner it is over with the better."

Hoch expressed great surprise at the finding of the jury and declared that the jurors did not take time to consider the evidence.

Hoch denied positively that he had committed any crime or had murdered a number of wives, as had been alleged, and displayed some bitterness in speaking of the matter.

"Such talk is foolish," he said, "the reports have been spread that I am a modern 'Bluebeard.' This is untrue. All that can be said against me is that I committed bigamy."

Hoch said he preferred the death penalty to life imprisonment.

A prison guard said: "Where there's life, there's hope, you know." Hoch smiled and replied: "Not for me. It's all over and John is going to die."

Hoch then commenced to whistle a lively air as he was returned to his cell.

SECRETARY MORTON TO RETIRE.

STRIKE SETTLEMENT

RESTS UPON SHOULDERS OF EXPRESS COMPANY MANAGERS IN NEW YORK CITY.

TROUBLE ALMOST SETTLED

IF EXPRESS COMPANIES WILL TAKE THEIR DRIVERS BACK THE STRIKE WILL END.

Chicago, May 20.—Upon the shoulders of the managers of the express companies, resident in New York city, rests the possible settlement of the teamsters' strike in this city. After a night spent in conference the members of the employers' association and the executive committee of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters reached an agreement upon all points except the reinstatement of the drivers of the seven express companies. When these men went out, they were warned by the local managers of the express companies that if they went on strike without grievances of their own, that not one of them would ever again be employed by the express companies. At night after extended conferences between the two sides to the strike the following terms were announced by the employers' association, and with the exception of that relating to the express drivers, accepted by the teamsters:

That the teamsters should recognize the integrity and permanency of the Employers' Teaming company, which is to employ nonunion men and remain pledged to the policy of the open shop;

That the drivers for the express companies abide by the declaration of the companies of the forfeiture of their positions when they struck.

Nonunion Men to Be Retained.

That all desirable nonunion men shall be retained, and that no discrimination shall be practiced against union men in filling the vacancies, save that men who have been guilty of lawlessness during the strike shall not be re-employed.

These terms were conveyed to the members of the teamsters' executive committee at an early hour Saturday morning. A vigorous protest was made against the attitude of the express companies, and the teamsters proposed that twenty per cent of the express drivers should be taken back, the managers of the companies to pick the men.

The express companies absolutely refused to accept the modified proposition, declaring that they would not recede from their position that not one of their drivers who struck without a grievance of his own shall ever be re-employed.

The teamsters' executive committee, after receiving and deliberating over this reply, at 2 a. m. declared that the strike would not be called off unless something was done for the express drivers.

RUSSIA WILL FILE PROTEST.

Objects to Alleged Contemplated Violation of Treaty.

St. Petersburg, May 20.—The Russian charge d'affaires at Peking has informed the Chinese government that according to reports the Japanese intended removing the Emperor of Korea to Japan in contravention of the treaty of Shimonoseki, guaranteeing the independence of Korea. The Russian government has protested against such action to all the powers.

STATEMENTS ARE INCORRECT.

Minister Takahira So Characterizes Those From St. Petersburg.

Washington, May 20.—"The treaty of Shimonoseki, which brought to a close the Japanese-Chinese war, guaranteed the independence of Korea. Japan will not violate the terms of that treaty. Statements that the Japanese government contemplates removing the emperor of Korea to Japan in contravention of that treaty are incorrect and are circulated with a mischievous purpose in view."

This was the comment on the St. Petersburg dispatch that Japan intended to remove the Korean emperor to Japan made by Minister Takahira of Japan at night. The minister had heard recently that reports of this character were in circulation. As between the governments of Japan and China it is realized that so long as interests of the United States are not menaced there is no ground for this government to interfere in this connection, except perhaps to exert its good influences for the continuation of friendly relations between them.

Acting Secretary Loomis of the state department said that the protest spoken of in the St. Petersburg dispatch had not yet reached the state department.

Truths that Strike Home

Your grocer is honest and—if he cares to do so—can tell you that he knows very little about the bulk coffee he sells you. How can he know, where it originally came from, how it was blended—or with what—or when roasted? If you buy your coffee loose by the pound, how can you expect purity and uniform quality?

LION COFFEE, the LEADER OF ALL PACKAGE COFFEES, is of necessity uniform in quality, strength and flavor. For OVER A QUARTER OF A CENTURY, LION COFFEE has been the standard coffee in millions of homes.

LION COFFEE is carefully packed at our factories, and until opened in your home, has no chance of being adulterated, or of coming in contact with dust, dirt, germs, or unclean hands.

In each package of LION COFFEE you get one full pound of Pure Coffee. Insist upon getting the genuine. (Lion head on every package.)

(Save the Lion-heads for valuable premiums.)

The Bells of Davos.
The first thing that strikes the stranger in Davos, Switzerland, and strikes him unpleasantly is the bells. Not only does every cow, goat and sheep wear its bell, but when they are all shut up for the winter and we hope for a little rest then comes the infernal, eternal din from every cart, carriage, sleigh, omnibus and all other kinds of vehicle which ply for hire or otherwise. No doubt they become a necessity on the silent highways as winter progresses, but that does not render them one bit more palatable.

St. Cloud, Minn., May 19.—The Twins base ball stock is due to go up a peg.

Duluth won again but by a score of 6 to 4 after as good a game of ball with the exception one player as has been seen in St. Cloud for some time. Kelley in center field practically lost the game for the locals dropping an easy fly and allowing two runs to come in, giving Duluth the lead which the Twins were unable to cover.

Kelley made another error which was not so costly but which was hardly excusable and it is apparent that he will not do. He did get around the circuit once for one of the Twins' runs but that was all he did during the game.

Davidson pitched for the Twins and did excellent work. He is not an old head and his work was a surprise to the fans who for the most part expected to see him batted all over the diamond. Duluth only touched him up for four hits and he issued but two passes and secured three assists.

Wing in left field played a star game and got a number of good ones. He did not make an error and has seven put outs to his credit besides making three of St. Cloud-Brainerd's base hits. The locals landed on Harris pretty freely making five hits but the Duluth man kept them well scattered. He was considerably easier than Potts, however. O'Dea was not playing his usual game and as a result has two errors chalked up against him.

The game should have been St. Brains' and would have been but for Kelley's work in the center field. The fans here are considerably encouraged over the showing and when the Twins return in two weeks they will put up an article of base ball that will be appreciated. Long, the umpire, was just as far off as ever on his balls and strikes but he was not discriminating to any extent.

Be A Real Woman.

No. 805 Pease Avenue, Houston, Texas, May 14, 1908.

I was barren during the six years of married life, suffering with painful menstruation and a dozen other aches and pains. I was a poor excuse for a wife as I was not able to be up more than about half the time and daily grew weaker and weaker.

Wine of Cardui changed me into a different woman in five short months, made me robust and strong.

I am very grateful to you for my good health and am today blessed with a baby who is the pride of our home and this is all due to your medicine.

WINE OF CARDUI

Wine of Cardui brings health to sick women. Wine of Cardui brings children to barren homes.

How can any woman refuse the health Mrs. Mason has? Any woman can secure exactly the same relief if she will take Wine of Cardui. Wine of Cardui is a certain cure for menstrual irregularities. It will not do impossibilities but it does cure bearing-down pains, makes motherhood possible for barren wives and relieves the pains at the monthly period. Secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui today. A Hero by Accident.

"There's no telling what moment a man's fortune may turn or what may decide the turning," remarked the visitor, who had been listening to the interchange of stories.

"That's so," agreed one of the bystanders. "The only question is whether the man's got the wit to see the chance and the grit to make use of it."

"Well, even that isn't always necessary. I was out on the frontier some years back when a young fellow I knew to be a 'white head' was promoted in his regiment and paragoned in all the eastern papers for his courage and coolness. He had been sent out to meet an attacking party of Indians. He didn't want to go a bit. He actually trembled when he confessed to me it was his first call to dangerous duty and he'd give anything on earth to be out of the affair. In less than twenty-four hours the station was ringing with the way he had held his ground, even when his men had beat a retreat. It was a miracle he wasn't captured or killed, staying there single handed to face and fire on the advancing foe."

"Just one of those instances of a man finding his native courage in the presence of real danger?"

"Not a bit of it. He was riding a mule, and just at the critical moment the animal planted his feet and refused to budge."—Youth's Companion.

Long Winded Oratory.

It is no new thing for the house of commons to suffer from long winded oratory. As long ago as the sixteenth century Queen Bess soundly rated her lawmakers for not working more and talking less, and some years later Speaker Long actually succumbed to a succession of lengthy speeches. "The house is empty, and so be our stomachs," one impatient member declared. "I pray you, therefore, adjourn the debate for an hour." But the speaker declined to budge from the post of duty, with the result that he was taken ill and died shortly after. Brougham once spoke for six hours on end on law reform, Sheridan and Gladstone both have records of five hour speeches, Mr. Bigger tied their record, and Palmerston once held forth for four hours and a half on Don Pacifico.

Terrific Race With Death.

"Death was fast approaching," writes Ralph F. Fernandez, of Tampa, Fla., describing his fearful race with death, "as a result of liver trouble and heart disease, which had robbed me of sleep and of all interest in life. I had tried many different doctors and several medicines, but got no benefit, until I began to use Electric Bitters. So wonderful was their effect, that in three days I felt like a new man, and today I am cured of all my troubles." Guaranteed at H. P. Dunn & Co.'s drug store; price 50c.

OUR FUTURE IN THE ORIENT

Japanese Baron Foresees Enormous Trade—Wants Economic Alliance.

Baron Kaneko of Japan, whose visit to the United States has been for the special purpose of studying economic conditions, recently spoke as follows at Washington, says the New York Times: "In the next five or ten years American trade with the far east, particularly with Japan, will expand with enormous rapidity. The reason is plain. We have to depend on America for raw materials, and you have to depend on Japan for raw materials. Our cotton factories depend entirely upon American raw cotton. We must depend on you for tobacco leaf. We look to you for breadstuffs, for iron and steel, cast, bar and sheet iron and machinery. These things we cannot make in our country.

"On the other hand, we send you raw silk—you cannot raise it. We give you about $50,000,000 worth of tea each year. In other things which never compete we provide your country, and the balance of trade is carried out by this means.

"At present we cannot tell when the war will end, but sooner or later normal business conditions must return. We have spent enormous sums of money. We have had a great strain on our financial power. It will take four or five years for us to recover, and by that time the United States will have established a firm grasp on the east, since you have such low interest on your money, such tremendous money power and skillful business men. The United States will be the gainer, and you will have trade there pretty much your own way.

"Therefore I am studying what is the prospect for Japan in the future in regard to the far eastern trade in order that we may establish some commercial understanding with the United States, so that we may work so as not to collide with each other, not to come into trade conflict. If we can form an economic alliance the commerce of the far east will be developed without any hindrance or molestation. My belief is that in the twentieth century diplomacy must be founded on commerce and that in developing strong commercial ties we are preserving the peace of the world better than by any other means."

THEORY ABOUT CHERRIES.

Iowa Man's Reason Why Trees Flourish Only Every Other Year.

A citizen of Council Bluffs, Ia., has advanced a new reason for the biennial cherry crop and is confident he has discovered a remedy, says a special dispatch from Council Bluffs to the St. Louis Post-Dispatch. Explaining his theory recently to a meeting of the Council Bluffs Horticultural society his idea was generally received with favor, and should the present season prove the truth of his contention a new and profitable discovery will have been made in fruit growing.

George Wilson, who has made a life study of fruit growing, has come to the conclusion that the reason cherries are abundant only every other year is because of the manner in which they are picked. His theory is that when the cherries are picked the buds for the next year's crop are pulled off with the fruit. The method of picking cherries is to pull both stem and cherry from the tree. "If you will notice a basket of cherries in the market," he says, "you will see that part of the bark of the limb is on the stem. Usually there are several cherries hanging together, and if you will look closely you will find buds on the stem. All other fruit leaves its stem on the parent stalk. Plums, apricots, apples, peaches, raspberries, blackberries and other fruits drop off, or, when picked, pull off without bringing the stem with them."

Mr. Wilson last summer clipped all his cherries from the trees with shears, and this year the trees are full of bloom, promising an abundant yield. His experiment is being watched with interest.

State Owned Hotels.

Western Australia is probably the only part of the British empire that has carried Socialism to the length of building and managing state hotels. From the annual report and balance sheet recently presented to the local parliament it appears that state drinks are 25 cents a glass. There was a loss of $4,250 on the house account, which apparently means the boarding branch of the business, but on the operations as a whole there was a profit of $2,600.

Marking the Santa Fe Trail.

The Kansas legislature has appropriated funds to mark permanently the route of the old Santa Fe trail, the famous historic highway of the west, says the New York Tribune. LEADING SOURCE OF COMPLAINT.

Adverse Weather Conditions the Main Drag on Trade.

New York, May 20.—Bradstreet's weekly review of trade says adverse weather conditions are a leading source of complaint this week, but clearing weather, now reported throughout a large area of the country, bids fair to reinforce existing optimistic views as to late summer and fall trade. Cold or rainy weather, except in a few sections, has affected general trade, further retarded an already late corn and cotton planting season, gives rise to rather less optimism on winter wheat crop reports, and bullishly stimulated grain, pork and cotton prices. The great barometer of trade and industry, the iron trade, is less active for the cruder forms despite price concessions, but the disposition in usually well informed quarters is to regard this as an instance of the general breathing spell which is noted in many lines of wholesale business. Demand for finished products remains good as a whole; prices for ship building, structural material and builders hardware still in a high degree active. The railroads are buying freely of cars and other equipment. Exports are close to the record for the season, and some gain is noted in corn, which may preface a turn in the tide of the grain trade. Railway earnings continue exceptionally good.

TWO JAPANESE HEROES.

Bravery Displayed by Soldiers at Port Arthur.

A Japanese newspaper prints the following incidents of the fighting before Port Arthur: "There was a brave sergeant in the investing army at the rear of Port Arthur. One night he fell asleep in front of the enemy's fort. At dawn suddenly noisy voices broke out around him. He started up at once and saw that he was surrounded and about to be captured by a company of the enemy. Yet he stood still, and, taking out an explosive shell from his pocket in an instant, he hurled it with his full power into a crowd of the enemy. Smiling at them in their alarm, he went back to his own position with the speed of the wind.

"One day a most severe battle was going on somewhere about Port Arthur. At its hottest moment a company of our brave soldiers was furiously rushing over the dying and the dead in the face of the pelting shower of death dealing bullets, against the stubborn defenders posted in a semipermanent fortification, when Sublieutenant Ota saw a soldier following after him with high spirit, but quite empty handed. The officer, being astonished, called him by name and asked what he had done with his gun.

"At this the soldier looked foolish for a moment, but as soon as he looked at his right hand he exclaimed: 'Oh, my hand! Oh, my gun! My gun!' He had been utterly unconscious that his hand, together with the rifle, had been blown off some moments before by a shell from the enemy. The name of the ardent and memorable warrior is Bunzaemon Nishikawa, native of the province of Echū."

TASTE OFTEN DEFICIENT.

Smell Shown Necessary Even to Tell Onions From Potatoes.

"Do you really think that you can distinguish the tastes of potatoes and onions?" was the unusual question that Professor Burtis Burr Breese asked his psychology class at the University of Cincinnati the other morning, says a special dispatch to the Chicago Inter Ocean.

"I have yet to see the individual who could tell them apart when they were reduced to the same consistency and when the sense of taste only was used."

At this point Miss Luella Latta, a member of the class, showed some evidences of doubting. And Miss Latta was asked to step up to the rostrum, and when she was seated Professor Breese told her that she must not breathe through her nose—that is, she must rely altogether on the taste—and that he was certain she would be unable to distinguish the three things that he then proceeded to give her separately.

She failed, quite as the professor predicted, and he then told the class that Miss Latta had not been able to tell watergreen from peppermint or peppermint from cloves.

"In fact," he said, "none of you can tell the difference simply by the sense of taste. The taste is added very greatly by the sense of smell. All you really taste is sweet and sour, salt and bitter."

Saved by Dynamite.

Sometimes, a flaming city is saved by dynamiting a space that the fire can't cross. Sometimes, a cough hangs on so long, you feel as if nothing but dynamite would cure it. Z. T. Gray, of Calhoun, Ga., writes: "My wife had a very aggravated cough, which kept her awake nights. Two physicians could not help her; so she took Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, which eased her cough, gave her sleep, and finally cured her." Strictly scientific cure for bronchitis and La Grippe. At H. P. Dunn & Co.'s drug store, price 50c and $1.00; guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

LOST

I received a certificate of deposit from the First National Bank of Brainerd for $4,000 numbered 43,203, dated May 12th, 1905, due in six months. I lost it the same day I received it between the court house and said bank or on Front street. By returning said certificate of deposit to me or the First National bank, the finder will be liberally rewarded.

ELIZABETH CAMERON.

Bob Evans' Japanese Story.

Around Bob Evans in a recent conversation with a group of officers threw light upon one of the methods at least by which the Japanese have obtained that splendid adaptability to European and American ways, says the Pittsburgh Dispatch. "When I commanded the New York some years ago," he said, "I had a Jap servant with whom I was especially pleased. He was prompt, remarkably quick to learn and took such a deep interest in everything that sometimes, to amuse myself, I devoted not a little attention to explaining things that he appeared not to understand. A good waiter, too, he was. Well, finally he disappeared. Some time later, when on the European station, I made a call on a Jap battleship lying in the harbor of Marseilles. The captain met us at the gangway and escorted us to the cabin. As we were seated he suddenly turned, threw off his hat and whipped a napkin over his arm. 'The captain would drink?' he said in a tone I remembered. 'Kato?' I cried, jumping to my feet. 'The same,' he said, bowing. 'Captain Kato of the mikado's navy.'"

Radium In Flour.

Radium has been found in wheaten flour, said Professor J. J. Thompson at the Royal Institute, London. How it got there, he added, he could not explain. There was no doubt, however, that such flour would produce radioactive bread.

DRINK THE CAUSE OF MORE CRIME IN OUR CITY.

Another horrible tragedy in our midst, causing much excitement and bitter feeling, goes down a long line of crime in this country resulting from excessive use of liquor. The liquor habit is universally recognized by physicians as a disease. It can be cured by Orrine.

This meritorious cure is the result of over ten years' scientific research by a Washington chemist. It has been tested by physicians who pronounce it wonderful. We have made arrangements with the laboratories of the Orrine Company, Inc., Washington, D. C., to furnish Orrine to people who are desirous of being freed from this horrible disease caused by the excessive use of whiskey, beer or other alcoholic stimulants. Orrine No. 1 (in powder form) can be given secretly in tea, coffee or food without the patient's knowledge. Orrine No. 2 (in pill form) is for those who desire to be free from the craving for alcoholic stimulants. We sell Orrine at $1 per package, and the company guarantees to cure the craving or refund every cent paid for it. We do not hesitate to recommend it to you. H. P. Nantucket Lightship, May 19.—A white ship rigged vessel has just been sighted. Ship's signals not out, but she answers the description of the Valhalla.

The Valhalla crossed the starting line at 1:04 p. m. Wednesday. From Sandy Hook lightship to the Nantucket lightship the distance is 193 miles. In covering this distance the Valhalla has averaged about 5.21 knots per hour.

A Creeping Death.

Blood poison creeps up toward the heart, causing death. J. E. Stearns, Belle Plain, Minn., writes that a friend dreadfully injured his hand, which swelled up like blood poisoning. Bucklen's Arnica Salve drew out the poison, healed the wound, and saved his life. Best in the world for burns and sores. 25c at H. P. Dunn & Co.'s drug store.

Trial of Whiteman Resumed.

Buffalo, N. Y., May 17.—The trial of Alonzo J. Whiteman, charged with defrauding the Fidelity Trust company, was resumed during the day. Assistant District Attorney Ryan, in presenting the case, went over practically the same ground covered by him in his opening address at the first trial.

No man can cure consumption. You can prevent it though. Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup cures coughs, colds, bronchitis, asthma. Never fails.

RACING YACHTS SIGHTED.

Two Competitors for Emperor William's Cup Reported.

Siasconset, Mass., May 19.—The wireless station here has received a message from the North German Lloyd steamer Grosser Kurfurst, which sailed from New York during the day, announcing that it sighted the yacht Apache at 10 p. m. in longitude 70.50 degrees west, latitude 39.59 degrees north.

The Apache is the American bark owned by Edmund Randolph, one of the fleet of ocean-going yachts competing in the race across the Atlantic for the cup offered by the emperor of Germany.

Since leaving the starting line at Sandy Hook lightship at 12:34 p. m. Wednesday until sighted at 10 p. m. Thursday the Apache has sailed a distance of approximately 139 miles eastward. During this time she has averaged a little over 5.05 miles an hour. Continuing at this rate of speed it would take her almost twenty-five days to cover the distance between Sandy Hook and Lizard Head.

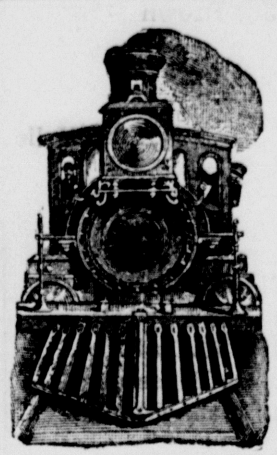

Atmosphere That Intoxicates.

Visitors to the great wine cellars of Spain, says the Journal of Inebriety, sometimes suffer from symptoms of alcoholic intoxication. In some of these places, it is said, as much as half an ounce of absolute alcohol is found in five or six cubic feet of air. In London and on the continent barkeepers who work in badly ventilated saloons are practically drunkards without swallowing any liquor. Prussian and French authorities force all establishments where spirits are sold to thoroughly ventilate the premises twice a day.

A Man of Nerve.

"Myrtilla," said the old gentleman sharply, "that young man you had in the parlor last night is dull of comprehension. All I had to do was cough when the other chaps remained too late, and they would take the hint and depart. Did this one say anything when I coughed last night?"

"Yes," replied the beautiful daughter; "he said the next time he called he was going to bring you a bottle of cough sirup."—Newark News.

HISTORY OF THE CUYUNA RANGE

Interesting Article from the Pen of Leon E. Lum, of Duluth, on the Subject

CUYLER ADAMS ITS FOUNDER

Erratic Action of Compass Causes His Belief in Presence of Iron Ore

I have gathered information at your request for a short history of the Cuyuna Iron Range, which, in the space of four months, has given Brainerd and Deerwood and Crow Wing county more advertising than they have had in the past thirty years.

The history of the range is, up to this year, nothing more than a statement of the work of Mr. Cuyler Adams, of Duluth, in developing a theory and then demonstrating that his theory was correct.

Mr. Adams and his family many years ago bought large tracts of land at Deerwood, then called Withington, because of the richness of the land and the beauty of its location, and lived there occasionally summers. Along in the nineties other non-residents, mostly from Duluth and Superior, began to learn of Deerwood and its surrounding lakes. It is probable that the bass fishing in Serpent lake for the past thirty years has never been excelled in the United States for so long a period of continuous fishing without artificial propagation of fish.

Mr. Adams, in his summer vacations, ran out the lines of his land and found difficulty in doing it on account of magnetic influence. Since when has the county surveyor of Crow Wing county not been denounced for inaccuracy, and did any two surveyors ever agree on their lines? Certain residents of Brainerd will recollect subscribing to a fund to enable P. G. Fogelstrom to bore for iron near the present driving park, he having noticed the irregular action of the compass there, and strangely enough had he gone deeper he was very near the ore.

Mr. Adams had some geological knowledge also and that the Mississippi river should make a wide bend to the west north of Aitkin struck him as a circumstance showing that it could not break through some formation on the south. His curiosity was excited and he began to study iron formations showing magnetic attractions. He spent three years in New York reading technical works in the libraries and even obtained translations of Swedish books. He visited and examined other iron ranges. He also experimented with what is called a dip compass, an instrument something like an ordinary compass turned up sideways so that the needle, when attracted, moves down or dips instead of moving to one side, the assumption in using it being that when it is carried across a magnetic body it will begin to dip as the person carrying it approaches the magnetic formation, will stay dipped until the ore body is passed and then return gradually to its original position. In the case of the Brainerd formation and other iron deposits which he studied, Mr. Adams found, as perhaps others before him had learned, that it was not the merchantable ore body itself which affected the needle, but magnetic rock formation which shaded into ore. He began a systematic dip needle survey, as it might be termed, of the country east and west of Deerwood, working as far east as Aitkin and west to Little Falls. He made maps of magnetic lines and after ten years of study and work he had data enough to warrant him in putting in his own money and asking other people to put in theirs, to the end that a practical monopoly of the lands believed to contain ore might be secured. R. R. Wise and H. I. Cohen, of Brainerd, were among those who first purchased stock, somewhat to the amusement of their friends, but "He who laughs last laughs best."

Mr. Adams had also in 1903 begun drilling on his own land near Deerwood and had found ore. He also leased and found ore on land owned by George Merriott. Options on land near Jonesville were given to Pickands-Mather Co., the great Cleveland iron corporation, and Duluth parties are drilling between Jonesville and Deerwood. All have found ore in almost exactly the locations indicated by Mr. Adams.

Hartley, Albright, Hemstead, Holand, O'Brien and perhaps other enterprising Brainerd men bought dip needles and began the study of iron formations and acquired title to prospective mines, all to the great satisfaction of Crow Wing county farmers, who have taken little interest in iron when they could get seventy-five dollars an acre for land on the theory that "A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush."

The vein of ore, as at present known, is only from two to four hundred feet in width, but there are many land owners who are reasonably certain, in their own minds, that the compass does not work properly on their land and "there must be iron," or it would. Mr. Adams' companies are satisfied with what they have and are buying no more. Quite a body of ore has been shown on the south side of Rabbitt lake also, of which little has been said, and that range is something of a mystery. Such, in a commonplace way without technical details, is the history to date of the Cuyuna range. It has a large body of ore running from 40 to 60 per cent in iron, but very high in phosphorus, which is a disturbing factor. It is not so detrimental as formerly, however, as furnaces are increasing in the north for the high phosphorus ores which are common in Tennessee and Alabama, and when other ores become scarce enough, which will be soon at the present rate of consumption, Brainerd ores will be used. Until that time its owners will have to possess their souls in patience.

The Cuyuna range is not like the Mesaba, but is a vertical formation like the Wisconsin range, and lies under a deep surface which makes it necessary to use underground mining methods however, employs many more miners than the open pit mines, hence that fact helps the future of Brainerd, Deerwood and Crow Wing county.

HARDY SECURED SNUG VERDICT

Suit Against the Muller Lumber Company Terminated in the District Court

PLAINTIFF GOT $900 VERDICT

In Case Mankato First National Bank vs Alyea Court Directed Verdict for Plaintiff

The case of Parker C. Hardy vs. the Mueller Lumber company which went on trial yesterday morning was terminated yesterday afternoon and the jury brought in a verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $900.55. The case was brought by the plaintiff to secure a settlement on a logging contract claimed to have been entered into between plaintiff and one of the agents of the company. J. N. True appeared for the plaintiff and W. H. Crowell for the defendant.

In the case of the First National bank, of Mankato, vs. Lewis Alyea the court directed a verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $384.20. The bank sought to collect a note given by Alyea.

Today the case of Henry Herivel vs. John Lund was taken up. This is an appeal from the municipal court and A. D. Polk appears for plaintiff and A. T. Larson for the defendant.

No other reports have been received from those who were indicted.

SHERLUND AWARDED CONTRACT

For Heating and Steamfitting of Ransford Block--Work on Building Progressing Satisfactorily.

There was some lively bidding for the steam heating and steam fitting work at the new Ransford block. There were but three local bidders, L. W. Sherlund, F. J. Murphy and Slipp-Gruenhagen company. The three bids were not over $100 apart. The contract was awarded to L. W. Sherlund, the contract price being about $3,500.

R. R. Wise stated this morning that work was progressing very satisfactorily on the new building and that it was expected that it would be ready for occupancy about June 10. Men are at work plastering now and this work will be pushed to completion as soon as possible.

Side Talks by the Office Boy.

"Life Publishing Company" printed a picture in their magazine recently of an old guy and a beautiful young woman in a boat. While the girl lolls back against the pillows in the stern the old man picks a guitar and sings to her. "Life" offered a prize of $500 for the most appropriate name for the picture. The name winning the prize was "Never too Old to Yearn." Six different people suggested the above name, so the prize was divided among them. Now, I don't think that name fits the case at all. I believe any kid could have suggested a better one. If I'd been guessing for the prize I'd have sent in names like these: "An Old Rooster's Last Crow," "Grandpa's Head is off its Trolley," or "An Old Cock Crowing to a Young Chick," or something of that sort. Webster defines "Yearn," "to long." The old boy looks as if he'd waited too long already. There is one thing about the old man's make-up that struck me immediately. This was his yacht hat. It's almost a cinch it's a Lampher. Linnemann's hats are so good, so stylish and so reasonable in price that men are "never too old to yearn for them."

WILLIAMS MUST DIE

SLAYER OF JOHN KELLER IS CON-VICTED OF MURDER IN THE FIRST DEGREE.

SENTENCE IS PRONOUNCED

INFLECTION OF DEATH PENALTY
IS RECEIVED WITH APPAR-ENT UNCONCERN.

St. Paul, May 20.—The jury in the case of William Williams, tried for the murder of John Keller, and also accused of killing his mother, Mrs. F.
S. Keller, at 11:15 p. m. brought in a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree. Judge Lewis immediately sentenced Williams to death. The date of execution will be fixed by Governor Johnson.

The jury retired at about 4:50 p. m.
and shortly after 10 p. m. handed a written request to Judge Lewis for instructions, which he said could best be answered by reading his charge regarding murder in the first degree, murder in the second degree and manslaughter in the first degree. This was read by Judge Lewis, the jury
then retired and in less than an hour returned its verdict of first degree murder.

Before sentence was pronounced Williams said he was born at Cornwall, Eng., was twenty-seven years old, never married, and that his parents are living. When asked if he had anything to say why sentence
should not be pronounced upon him,
he replied:

"No. Just as well now. Better
now than later on, I guess."

The court then pronounced the sentence that he be taken to the jail and there confined until such time as the governor may fix, after the expiration of two calendar months, when he will be taken to the place of execution and hanged by the neck until dead.

Williams showed no agitation when the verdict was read nor when the sentence of death was pronounced. He quietly allowed himself to be handcuffed and led away to jail.

The crime for which Williams must die was committed at No. 1 Reid court, this city, April 13, last. He then shot and killed Johnny Keller and Mrs.
Keller. He pleaded insanity. The police claim Williams was infatuated with young Keller and was a sexual pervert.

ALL HOPE ABANDONED.

Chinese Legation Expects Treaty Negotiations to Fail.

Washington, May 20.—All hope of the success of the pending negotiations
of the new Chinese exclusion treaty has for the present been abandoned by the Chinese officials as a result of the wave of resentment that has swept over China since it became known that it was planned to transfer the negotiations to Peking and that the department of commerce and labor was insisting upon its own interpretation of the exclusion law. Reports have reached the Chinese legation of the extent of this feeling throughout the Chinese empire and of the hostility of the Chinese commercial guilds to American goods, which might result, it is asserted, in a general boycott against American products, even were it possible to conclude the treaty at once.

The Chinese legation here declares that there is no intention of bringing suit in the supreme court of the United States in behalf of Chinese excluded or deported in violation of the treaty of 1888. All such infringements of that treaty the legation holds to be diplomatic matters entirely and an appeal will be had, not to the courts, but to the state department. The legation here holds that the expiration last December of the exclusion treaty of 1894 leaves in force the treaty of 1880.

Steamship Minnesota Makes Speedy

Chicago, May 20.—According to advices received here by Passenger Traffic Manager P. S. Eustis of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad, a record-breaking trip has been made by the Great Northern Steamship company's twin screw steamer
Minnesota between Seattle, Wash.,

a big passenger list and a large cargo, reached Yokohama Friday. She left Seattle May 5. Her time of fourteen days is twenty-four hours better called for. This time is believed to be the best ever made between Seattle and Yokohama. The trip just concluded is the second voyage of the

TOM JENKINS DEFEATS GOTCH.

Cleveland Wrestler Wins Match From Iowa Man.

New York, May 20.—A sensational finish to a most interesting catch-as-catch-can wrestling match between Tom Jenkins of Cleveland, O., and Frank Gotch of Humboldt, Ia., contested at Madison Square Garden at night, resulted in a clean victory for Jenkins.

When the men met for their third and deciding catch-as-catch-can match
they went at each other in dog fashion,
each worrying the other to the limit
without transgressing the rules.

Jenkins was the heavier of the two by at least ten pounds, but despite this advantage he was forced to assume the defensive almost from the start.

At intervals Jenkins attempted to get the upper berth, but Gotch was too slippery and finally got Jenkins almost constantly on the defensive.
Jenkins finally gained a neck hold with a half crotch and threw Gotch easily, after wrestling 1 hour, 27 minutes and 35 seconds.

Gotch won the second round with a neck and crotch hold in 35 minutes, 23 seconds.

After a rest of fifteen minutes the men got together again and indulged in a rough and tumble match, which resulted in Jenkins being forced through the ropes on a leg hold and neck hold combined. The referee sent the men to the center of the ring when they resumed their positions, but Gotch was the quicker to take advantage and he soon forced Jenkins to the mat. Jenkins, however, recovered his feet and went at his man with body holds, finally throwing Gotch with a double Nelson in 11 minutes and 10 seconds, and winning the match.

CLEMENTS THE STAR WITNESS.

Replies to Criticisms on Interstate Commerce Commission.

Washington, May 20.—Both sides of the rate hearing question were represented at the day's session of the senate interstate commerce committee.
Commissioner Judson C. Clements was the star witness, detailing the difficulties that confronted the commission in its work and repudiating attacks made on that body, particularly answering a number of criticisms by James J. Hill. Satisfaction with the present conditions was attested by ten shippers, including E. T. Koch, Cedar Rapids, Ia., representing packing-houses.

Commissioner Clements spoke sarcastically of the claim that only traffic men had the knowledge necessary to make rates and declared that in the hearings an effort had been made to turn the investigation into a criticism of the commission. Mr. Clements said that it was not intended in the proposed legislation to confer general rate-making power on the commission,
and in answering a question of Senator Dooliver, declared that the decision in the maximum rate case, which held that the power attempted to be exercised would give authority to fix
all rates, went too far. The commission, he said, would deal with complaints as they were made.

Commissioner Clements, in referring to statements of Professor Meyer of the Chicago university, whom he called a "doctrinaire," suggested that there was "an aristocracy of wealth which could hire men to advocate the theory of vested rights against the rights of individuals."

REGARDING PANAMA PURCHASES.

Little Injury Will Result to American Manufacturers.

Washington, May 20.—In official circles here the opinion is freely expressed that very little injury will result to American manufacturers from the president's open market order in regard to Panama purchases. The effect upon the market is felt to be very much exaggerated, as it is known that practically all supplies used on the isthmus will be purchased here.

A well-known purchasing agent of a Western railroad will in a few days be appointed purchasing agent of the canal commission in place of Major Gallagher, who rejoins his command.
This new agent is very well versed in railroad supplies, and is known to believe that our iron and steel products eclipse similar products of other countries.

Speaker Cannon took a hand in the affair during the day as the champion of the exclusively American purchases, no matter at what price.

Eventually congress will decide whether the Panama purchases shall be made in the open market or confined entirely to home manufactures.

DISCUSS ROUTINE MATTERS.

Delegates to Presbyterian Assembly
at Winona Lake, Ind.

Winona Lake, Ind., May 20.—The reading of reports, appointment of clerks and committees and discussion of evangelistic work by speakers engaged the attention of the delegates to the general assembly of the Presbyterian church during the day.

The first reference to the contemplated union was made by Dr. Sol C.
Dickey, who delivered a brief address presenting Moderator Moffatt with a gavel skillfully made from several kinds of wood. Dr. Dickey drew a metaphor from the blending of the woods, referring to the union of the several branches of the Presbyterian church. His remarks were greeted with loud applause.

Army Deserters Arrested.

St. Louis, May 20.—James Farney
and Luke Congleton, charged with desertion from the United States army, were arrested here during the day and turned over to the military authorities at Jefferson Barracks. They will be taken to the military post at Des Moines, Ia.

Boxing sardines.

When sardines in tens of thousands reach the factory they are cleaned by long rows of women with short knives
and go for two hours into the salt vats.
They next have a bath of sea water in coarse baskets under a pump and are put to dry in the open on wire racks till they begin to shrivel, when they are taken to the tanks of boiling oil. Into one of these each rack is plunged for a moment or two and then set aside to drip, after which the fish are selected and laid carefully in tin boxes, which are filled up with oil.
The box now passes to the hands of the solderer to be sealed, and when this is completed a hole is punched in the lid to let out any imprisoned air and closed at once with solder. As a final stage the tins are placed in a huge iron crate and lowered into tanks of boiling water, when they will explode if any air is still shut in. Those that stand this test are packed in wooden cases for exportation.

"Why did your cook leave so suddenly?"

"She baked two cakes last Saturday—
one for us and one to take to her married sister. When she wasn't looking I exchanged them and took for our own use the one she had intended to give away."—American Queen.

Papyrus Books.

Early writers made use of linen or cotton fabrics, of skins and even of scales of fishes for writing. For a long period papyrus was used, the books being made in rolls, being about one and one-half feet wide and sometimes fifty feet long. Papyrus was a flag or bulrush, growing eight or ten feet high, found in the marshes of Egypt;
from its inner pith the form of paper called papyrus was made. Papyrus sheets were neatly joined, attached to a stick and rolled upon it (whence we have our word "volume," from the Latin volvere, to roll). The titles were written on tags attached to the sticks or inscribed on the outside of the rolls. The rolls were kept in round wooden boxes resembling the old fashioned bandboxes and could easily be carried about.

This Girl Knows.

One of the infidellers had made an error.

The rosy cheeked girl in the grand stand turned to the young man at her side.

"George," she said.

George instinctively braced himself to meet the question he foresaw as to what had happened and what all the fuss was about.

"Well," he said.

"Why don't they put a wooden Indian cigar sign on third in place of that moon faced duffer with the split cipher running gear and the glass arm? That fellow couldn't stop a toy balloon if it was lobbed right into his flippers!"—
